

Helyg i Gymru

A allech CHI tyfu helyg ar gyfer cyflenwi tanwydd i'r diwydiant bio-ygni sy'n prysur datblygu?

Taith maes i weld y cnwd a blunwyd yn 2006 a fydd yn cael ei gynhaeafu'r gaeaf nesa'.

Cyfle i weld y berwr dŵr bio-mas newydd ar y fferm

Dewch i sgwrsio â'r tyfwyr a phartneriaid y cynllun i ddarganfod os yw cnydau bio-mas neu berwyr bio-mas yn opsiwn i chi.

Dydd Mawrth 11 Rhagfyr 2007

1:00 yp

Fferm Brigam Farm, Llanharry, PontyClun, CF72 9JX

Am fwy o wybodaeth cysylltwch â:- Chris Duller (IGER) 01970 823157

Ariennir Prosiect Helyg i Gymru gan Gronfa Datblygu Rhanbarthol Ewrop (ERDF) gan Swyddfa Cyllid Ewropeaidd Cymru ar ran Llywodraeth Cynulliad Cymru, a chan y WDA a chan Ddiwydiant er mwyn datblygu HELYG coedlan cylchdro byr yn gnwd bio-màs ar gyfer gwres ac ygni yng Nghymru. Ymysg y consortiwm o sefydliadau sy'n rhan o'r prosiect mae IGER, Forest Research, Prifysgol Caerdydd, Egni, RWE nPower, Renewable Energy Ltd, SENOVA ac Agrobransle.

Willow for Wales

Could YOU grow willow to provide fuel to a rapidly developing bio-energy industry?

Field walk to look at the crop planted in 2006

A newly installed biomass boiler on the farm

Come and talk to growers and project partners to discover if biomass crops or biomass boilers could be the option for you.

Tuesday 11th December 2007
1:00pm

Brigam Farm, Llanharry, PontyClun, CF72 9JX

For more information contact:- Chris Duller(IGER) 01970 823157

Willow for Wales is a project funded by the European Regional Development Fund (ERDF) by the Wales European Funding Office on behalf of the Welsh Assembly Government, by WDA and by Industry to develop short rotation coppice WILLOW as a biomass crop for heat and power in Wales. It involves a consortium of organisations including IGER, Forest Research, Cardiff University, EGNI, RWE nPower, Renewable Energy Ltd, SENOVA and Agrobransle

